Where, for whatever reason, we are not or we cease to be entitled to receive gross distributions:

1. we undertake to fully indemnify against any tax liability, associated costs and other foreseeable loss that Freehold Income Authorised Fund and its agents may incur as a result with such indemnity having a duration extending to 4 years following redemption of ownership of shares;
2. we authorise TIME Investments to recover any tax payable by the Freehold Income Authorised Fund and any costs incurred by it or the Freehold Income Authorised Fund as a result of our change of tax status by set off against any sums due to us in respect of any shares in Freehold Income Authorised Fund registered in the name (and designation, if relevant) noted in section 2 of this Application Form, whether from income from the shares or from any redemption proceeds of any of those shares that would otherwise be paid to us;

Definition of Exempt Investor

An Exempt Investor is an Investor entitled to receive distributions without the declaration of withholding tax from the Fund as defined within Regulation 69Z24 Authorised Investment Funds (Tax) Regulations 2006. Shareholders who apply for Class A Gross Accumulation Shares, Class C Gross Income Shares, Class E Gross Accumulation Shares or Class G Gross Income Shares must satisfy the requirements of the regulations.

Individuals, corporates resident outside the United Kingdom (such as offshore bonds) and most other types of investors are not Exempt Investors and are therefore not eligible to receive gross payment of distributions. If you are in any doubt as to whether you are entitled to receive gross distributions, please call your Financial Adviser or TIME Investments on 0345 600 1213.
